The Elections Technology Project

Katy Owens Hubler
National Conference of State Legislatures

State Certification and Testing of Voting Systems National Conference
May 19, 2015

Funded by the MacArthur Foundation
What Does NCSL Do?

- Serves 7,383 legislators and 25,000 legislative staff
- Provides non-partisan research & analysis
- Links legislators with each other and with experts
- Speaks on behalf of state legislatures in D.C.
NCSL’s Elections Team

- Research and Publications
  - The Canvass
  - State Legislatures Magazine
  - NCSL Website
Policy and Elections Technology: A Legislative Perspective
June 3 – 5, 2015
Santa Fe, New Mexico
Snapshot of elections administration and voting technology nationwide
Texas
The Human Element
Minnesota
SHOW ME THE MONEY!!!!!!
Wisconsin
Nevada
I used to have your job. Now I'm lucky if I can find work as a drink coaster.
Colorado
BADA BING

BADA BOOM
Pennsylvania
KEEP IT SIMPLE STUPID
Questions and Contact Info

- Katy Owens Hubler
  Elections Policy Specialist
  National Conference of State Legislatures
  303–856–1656
  katy.owens.hubler@ncsl.org